Natural Splendor: Unveiling the Region's Scenic Wonders

Tranquil Trails and Majestic Mountains

Escape into the embrace of nature as you explore the region's extensive network of hiking trails. From gentle strolls along the Hudson River to challenging ascents to the summit of Mount Tremper, there's a trail for every level and preference. The Catskill Mountains, with their towering peaks and cascading waterfalls, offer unparalleled views and unforgettable outdoor adventures.

For a truly immersive experience, consider embarking on the Catskill 3500 Club, a challenge to hike all 35 mountains above 3,500 feet within a calendar year. It's a demanding but rewarding endeavor, offering a profound connection to the region's natural heritage.

Enchanted Forests and Scenic Drives

Venture beyond the mountains and discover the Hudson Valley's enchanting forests and serene landscapes. The Minnewaska State Park Preserve boasts towering cliffs, pristine lakes, and miles of hiking trails that wind through a breathtaking wilderness. As you drive through the region, take advantage of the numerous scenic byways, such as the Catskill Scenic Trail and the Taconic Parkway, offering panoramic vistas and picturesque roadside attractions.
