Synopsis

In the heart of the ancient forest of Scatpthorne, a hidden world exists, where the lines between myth and reality blur. Here, the legendary wizard Merlin has been slumbering for centuries, awaiting the day when his return will be needed most.

As the forces of darkness gather, threatening the very existence of both the human and magical realms, a young woman named Anya is destined to awaken Merlin from his long sleep. Together, they embark on a perilous journey to confront their destiny and save both worlds from destruction.

Along the way, Anya and Merlin encounter a cast of unforgettable characters, including the enigmatic Lady Morgana, the brave knight Sir Tristan, and the mischievous Puck. They must also navigate treacherous landscapes, solve ancient riddles, and battle formidable foes.

Review

Scatporthorne One: The Return of Merlin is a captivating novel that weaves together the enchanting world of Arthurian legend and Celtic mythology with a thrilling adventure story.
